

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT

Must be signed and returned to the editor-in-chief of the journal before the manuscript can be considered for publication

The transfer of copyright from author to publisher must be explicitly specified in writing so that the publisher can ensure that the author's work is disseminated. Thus, each submission of manuscripts includes the following agreement, executed and signed by the author. (If the article is a 'job done for hire' the employer will sign it.)

Journal Title: _____

Volume Editor(s): _____

Title of the Paper: _____

Corresponding author's information (please print):

Name: _____

Email Address: _____

Address: _____

It has not been published before, and it is not under consideration for publication in any other journals. It contains no matter that is scandalous, obscene, libelous, or otherwise contrary to law. When the article is accepted for publication, I, as the author, hereby agree to transfer to HolyKnight Publications all rights, including those pertaining to electronic forms and transmissions, under existing copyright laws, except for the following, which the author(s) specifically retain(s):

1. The right to make further copies of all or part of the published article for my use in classroom teaching;
2. The right to reuse all or part of this material in a compilation of my own works or in a textbook of which I am the author;
3. The right to make copies of the published work for internal distribution within the institution that employs me.

The Author(s) won't post his/her contribution everywhere else without the previous written permission of the publisher except it's been changed drastically. The Author(s) warrants that their contribution is original, besides for such excerpts from copyrighted works as may be blanketed with the permission of the copyright holder and creator thereof, that it carries no libelous statements, and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory proper, or propriety right of others.

The Author signs for and accepts duty for liberating this cloth on behalf of any and all coauthors. In return for these rights: HolyKnight Publications has the same opinion to submit the recognized contribution at his very own fee and price. Resale of such copies isn't authorized.
